

IATW Prayer Bulletin Insert

APRIL 2007

Kokura: Oaks of Righteousness welcomes as their new manager, Justine Atusasiire, who formerly worked with poor, needy and vulnerable children through Compassion International's Child Development Centre. Pray that she will be a blessing to them. Pictured here are the boys at Oaks of Righteousness.

Riegert: Ken traveled to A territory accompanied by John Ferris, of Flesherton. They interviewed elders and government officials, investigating how well traditional justice links with government justice systems. Pray that this visit will be another step in bridging the gap to these tribes. Continue to pray for Nancy as she dedicates much time to helping Bingham Academy, and for Luke and Adam as they complete another school term.

Sticklee: Rachel and her friends in Dominican Republic were blessed by a visit from Ron Ferguson. Pray for Rachel, as God continues to develop her vision for ministry. Pray that her passion will remain vibrant in every circumstance.

Weatherby: Gene and Janice are looking forward to visitors in April, involving some important discussions. Pray that God's hand will be on them at this time and his direction will be revealed. Pray too for the Weatherby's as they prepare messages on cassette for the people, before they leave this region.

Ian and Lynne White – have received the first two children into the Rehema Bukura home. Isaac (at left) is just recovering from Malaria – is 8 months old. Nathan (right) is 5 months and appears to be deaf. Currently the Board is interviewing people to hire to be house mothers in the home. Please pray for guidance and wisdom.

Charlotte Weenink. Pray for our newest worker Charlotte Weenink as she raises support. She is working with a city wide youth ministry in Barrie

Ontario. She is involved with a dynamic outreach and discipling ministry. Two of the girls she has discipled are Rachel Sticklee and Letitia LaFrance who are involved with IATW.

Marlene Stairs has returned from 3 months in Kenya working with Joseph Mophat and the Church. Pray for her as she prepares for a month teaching English in India in June.

THANK YOU FOR PRAYING.

In March our Team trip to Kenya (4 teens -4 adults) went well with some life changing experiences.

The Thrift Shop is open.

Customers cashing out above. Pray for finalizing our systems and getting good advertising & volunteers.

Jonathan Eby in South Africa has enjoyed his working with the Weatherby's. Pray for his last few months in Africa as he prepares to return for the summer.

David and Christina Lewis continue to study Swahili. They ask for prayer for the issuing of a certificate of exemption so the container can be duty free.

The first two classrooms are finished except for painting (plaster has to dry) Pray for their search for teachers, enrolment of 70 students for the July 2nd opening of classes. (Pictured below –two classrooms on left and Daniel's house right)

YOUR CHURCH – as we celebrate Easter pray for your church. May our light so shine to draw people about us to Christ and fullness of life that is in Him

Anne Scharman is taking a further equipping course and will soon be back in Belize to close her home there prior to returning to Canada.

India - Hallelujah writes that this March their first grade 12 class wrote government exams. Pray for these students as they go to further education or to the work force.

West Africe – Bitrus Audu is currently visiting Niger to see about beginning an outreach in that 99% Muslim nation. Pray for wisdom

Daniel in Zanzibar reports 16 baptized so far this year. (12 of Muslim background.) In a recent door to door outreach 8 more prayed to receive Jesus.
