

THANK YOU FOR PRAYING.

We cannot emphasize enough how much your prayers mean. How much they have accomplished. Thank you –some recent results include:

A good visioning trip to Zanzibar and Kenya – with Ron Ferguson, Bill and Barb Lewis, Dave and Charlotte Bell. Much was accomplished by the Bells at All Nations Academy to help teachers learn new teaching methods

WHITES (Ian and Lynn) praise God their work permits have finally come through. Nathan one of the first orphans was deaf – after much prayer he is now hearing.

RIEGERTS (Ken and Nancy) report that the radio work is going well. They have received their first letter for more information.

Into All The World 2007 December Prayer Bulletin

UGANDA – Pat Kokura has completed ten years working with the boys from the streets. It has not been an easy time – but we praise God for all that has been accomplished. Pray for the new staff as they run the home for a period while Pat returns to Canada over the Christmas time.

REHEMA HOUSE – CHILDREN'S HOME – KENYA Ian and Lynne White expect two or three more children any day now. They could have 8 under their care by December 1st. Pray for the new staff and for Emily who may have cerebral palsey. They are taking her for physio therapy each week.

TEACHERS for All Nations Academy - ZANZIBAR. David and Christina Lewis say how they really could use one or two teachers for several months to a year to assist with the work load at the new school.

YOUR CHURCH – May there be much fruit for Gods glory in this special Christmas season at your home church.

Gene and Janice Weatherby – plan on spending December and January visiting in Alberta. If you would like them to share with your church please contact the office at 519-763-6147.

Also if you know someone who has a cassette tape duplicator to donate or sell reasonably – they are looking for one to take back to South Africa in the New Year.

Ethiopia.

Ken and Nancy have written that funding for the new chapel they were hoping to build has fallen through. They currently meet under tarpaulins, pray for God to send needed funds.

Continue to pray for the radio programs. In the new year in their story one of the Muslims on the program will be accepting Christ as Saviour. Pray that the listening ears will understand and will be used to draw listeners to Christ.

Dominican Republic –Rachel Sticklee continues to seek to develop the women's co-op. Rachel has dreams of a new building and a store. Pray for God to help her fulfill His dreams for this ministry. Pray also for unity amongst the many missionaries in the area as they get together to pray. Pray for Canadian fund raisers success in truck funding.

NIGERIA – Bitrus writes: “We thank God for a successful Bible school session from August to November. The school will vacate from the end of November till January. Pray that God bless the time of practical ministry in the villages, which the students will be involved in during this time.

Also please pray that God will raise many more volunteers to serve Him with us in the areas of Teaching in the Bible School, Children ministry, Medical missions, Discipleship, Publications and General Administration.

Join us in praying Colossians 1:9-14 and Ephessians 1:17-20 for the members of the churches we are planting in the rural areas.

SRI LANKA – Pastor Abraham Emmanuel writes asking us to pray for wisdom for the various aspects of ministry that are open for them.

North Korea Pastor David Mitchell writes that he has an opening to prayer walk in this closed country. Like to know more-please contact the office-and pray for David. Please pray for this team.

Pray for our next Board meeting Dec.8-9.
