

IATW Prayer Bulletin

THANK YOU FOR PRAYING.

May was a good month. We had a great Teachers conference on the 10th. Construction began again in Zanzibar on the school. All our workers are sending positive reports of God at work. Thank you for praying.

5 Adults are working to go to Zanzibar in June. From Rockwood and Guelph – Gord and Wilma Tosh, Scott and Andrea Bothwell leaving June 12 for three weeks of construction and health clinics. June 25 Hannah Semple a recent ECE graduate is going for two months to help with teaching and training teachers. Pray for them as they prepare to go.

Pray for the Board of Into All The World as they meet and plan for a successor to the Lewis as managing directors of the mission. Board members are doing their homework and will soon be actively looking for the person to lead the mission to its next level of service. It is hoped the Lewis will continue in an advisory role.

Some of the bicycles recently purchased in Ethiopia for prison Chaplains. Ken and Nancy Riegert have been blessed with funds to assist the chaplains move from prison to prison on these new wheels.

Pray for Ken who has recently been appointed team leader of Eastern Ethiopia. He will be overseeing, working with encouraging and assisting ten other workers in the area.

Pray that there will be much fruit from this new placement and God will grant Ken and Nancy ever increasing wisdom.

Pat Kokura is back in Uganda. She visited with her pastor from B.C. and they were pleased with the progress of the Project. They ask for prayer For new committed workers.

Pray for the plans for a home and a positive response from the street kids. The project has been renamed Jericho Rd Youth outreach.

PRAY FOR GOOD RELATIONSHIPS

Building the Kingdom of God is through good relationships. Above is Christina Lewis in Zanzibar with one of the mothers of a school child. The school, the clinic, an open home all have helped building relationships where Jesus can be seen and known. Pray for your home church and all our workers that they will have God given skill in building relations.

NIGER Thank God for delivering our field Coordinator for Niger Republic. He was detained by the police over the conversion of Musa and Gadjjo the two muslim converts now in our Bible School in Michika. When the matter came up for hearing, it was decided that there is no law in Niger that stops people from choosing their religion. Therefore the Pastor Nehemiah Garba was released.

JUNE 9 to 14 NIGER OUTREACH...

Pray for the Teaching outreach in Niger coming up the second week in June. Pray also for the safety of Musa and Gadjjo whose lives are still under threats by their relatives. We will be visiting Niger with them during the outreach and return together to Nigeria immediately after.

Gene and Janice Weatherby are working for the summer in Alberta to raise funds to return to South Africa in the fall. Pray for good work contracts for Gene and living arrangements.

Micheal and Angela Belovicz are home for June and July. Pray for them as they seek to prepare for their future. If you would like them to share with your church please phone us at 705-887-6548

Marlene Stairs leaves for India June 12. She will be teaching Conversational English to the school operated by Village Evangelization of India

Charlotte Weenink in Barrie works city wide with teens. They host 3 teens in their home They ask for Gods guidance in Discipling them. Also pray for teens to have hope. Many feel overwhelmed with pain, loneliness and abandonment. May God raise up people to really love them.

RACHEL STICKLEE was one of the teens Charlotte and her husband disciplined. She is now ministering in Dominican Republic. May 21 she Wrote "I would love if people would pray that God would be continually revealing himself to me, and in times of trouble that I would be changed to look more and more like Jesus. My prayer for the Haitian Village is that the Gospel of Jesus, the truth would be revealed and springs of living water would satisfy the deepest longings of our souls Pray that we (the believers) would be faithful and that we would not give into the temptation of despair or fear, or become people full of demands, and accusations. Pray that that the gospel will be spread despite our weaknesses and we would live in the Message we proclaim.

SRI LANKA Pastor Abraham Emmanuel asks for prayer for a vehicle for him to be able to visit the churches in the country. A good work is being done. Pray for peace from civil war in the country as well.
