

Papua New Guinea – Volcano Island – the island of Rabaul – recently 800 accepted Christ at the preaching outreach. This was Jeremy’s last video before heading back to Canada in June and finalizing wedding plans for September. Pray that Jeremy Heemskerck will be able to hand over all duties to the indigenous workers he has been teaching. See a video of these meetings at www.thelifeoffaith.blogspot.com – plus other news.

Dr. Jim Farquharson made a trip recently to the 8 clinics in Kenya. Things are going well and lives are being touched. Pray that these clinics will be used for all of God’s full purposes.

Pat Kokura is back in B.S. for further fundraising. Pray for the ministry to the street children in Uganda – during her absence.

Rachel Sticklee is pleased with the new peace in the area. Sales have been good and salaries for the women have been increased. Pray for wisdom as to the time to start building their own building.

Gene and Janice Weatherby have arrived in South Africa – they have found a good used vehicle/ Pray for their visa needs as well as continuing to learn the language.

Paul and Ale Watson continue their work at Oasis centre in South Africa working with HIV-AIDS people.

Pray for new staff to work in Canada with I.A.T.W.

Charlotte Weenink works with youth in Barrie. She asks for wisdom for ministering to the youth and their problems – as well as further training to help her develop her ministry.

Cayuga United has a team planning a trip to teach VBS in Kenya this summer with Joseph Mophat. Pray for wisdom as the team prepares.

Evelyn So – a university student from Queens will be spending most of June at Rehema House in Kenya working with the children. Pray for God to make good use of her training and skills.

Denise Elliott is back in Canada for her June marriage as well as to share more of her ministry with supporters before returning to Peru.

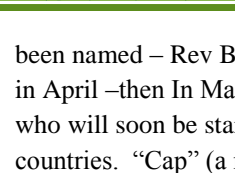

Jericho Windover will soon be leaving for Zanzibar. Pray for her preparations and travel.

India. Pray for peace in that land. A new government may be more tolerant of Christianity. Pray for God to empower all believers for outreach.

Prayer Bulletin

Into All The World.

The first IATW North African Worker had been named – Rev Bitrus Audu met with the Lewises and 11 others in April –then In May met and finalized arrangements with “Cap” who will soon be starting to plant a church on the border of two countries. “Cap” (a nick name) will be working with IATW and the Assemblies of God in Niger. Pray for his safety as well as favour and wisdom as he plants a Church.

As we raise needed funds two other men hope to be in the field by fall. Pray for God’s guidance and provision. Pray for God to open the door into Libya, Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco.

In April Bill and Barb Lewis attended the C.M.O. Bible School graduation in Michika. Pray for these 14 students as they begin working in various churches in West Africa. Pray for the 6 workers supported each month through funds sent through Into All The World.

Pastor Abraham Emmanuel in Sri Lanka has had major health issues concerning his heart and may need further surgery.. Pray for healing of our brother as well as peace and healing in his land from the civil war.

In Tanzania Christina Lewis gave birth to a son – May 11 – Ethan. Seen to the left with his 2 year old sister Jeanetta. These are the first two IATW children born overseas. Pray for health and safety of the family as well as new witnessing opportunities.

27 children now at Rehema. Ian White has returned to Canada to build another fund raiser house in Brandon. Lynne will be back in Kenya by early June. They have 9 children born this year. Pray for the Whites, the children, and Evelyn So a university student from Queens who will be helping out in Kenya this month.

Ken Riegert is busy writing these days – he is working on the tribal outreach plan as all of SIM wants to use the Riegert model for their workers. They are also writing proposals for the water project for camels for the government. Pray for wisdom and favour. Pray for Adam and Luke as they prepare to come to Canada for the summer at Circle Square ranch.