

I.A.T.W Prayer Bulletin

Isaac Mcheri has safely arrived from Zanzibar. He will be in Canada learning more about teaching until December. He is learning from Koinonia Christian Academy. Pray that he will get many good new ideas and skills to strengthen the teaching program of All Nations Academy.

Paul Kilioba is due to arrive in early October. He will be learning more about youth ministry in Canada. Pray that we will be able to get him to key locations with key youth groups to learn all God has for him while he is in Canada.

Our third African partner to be in North America is Bitrus Audu who leads CMO mission in Nigeria (and West Africa.) He is studying at International Bible Seminary in Los Angeles. His studies have begun as he works on a Doctorate in missions. Again pray for his heavy load as he seeks to finish 40 hours of classes each week this semester.

Paul and Ale Watson in South Africa work with OASIS a program of assistance and Gospel presentation to those who are HIV positive. They recently were part of a youth outreach where 150 teens accepted Christ. Another major outreach is planned for October first and December 8th. Pray for God to touch the hearts of these people.

Ryan and Sarah Preis have arrived in Zanzibar and set up the new computers in the Perks Library. In late September they fly to Rehema Children's home where they will be helping to set up the book keeping system. Sarah looks forward to spending lots of time with the children.

Barb Sargent arrives October 1st in Zanzibar for 6 weeks. As a retired teacher and principal she will be working with the teachers on additional teaching methods. Pray that they will be able to set up meetings with the minister of education so plans can be laid for teacher training seminars to all teachers on the island.
