

Prayer Bulletin

Into All The World

Pat Kokura writes from Uganda- please pray for:
Getting the legal deed for our property and the funds to build a centre. Wisdom to find and correct the boys who are stealing from us, and for our staff to grow together in unity.

Rachel Sticklee is working on arrangements for a long term lease for their present building for La Tienda women's co-op. She is dreaming of how the building can be expanded and improved to minister to more women. Pray for wisdom for her.

Paul and Ale Watson are heavily involved in witness teams to the upcoming World Cup in South Africa. They will be co-ordinating a number of teams.

Micheal and Angela Belovicz in Bolivia writes: "We will be going back to Canada for June & July and are looking forward to spending time with friends & family. Please pray that many doors of opportunity will be opened for us to share what we are doing here in Bolivia."

Ken and Nancy Riegert –please pray for Nancy's complete healing, and we need an ESL teacher for January. Pray for new contacts at home to support the A. children at school and for the finishing of the camel watering project.

Gene and Janice Weatherby ask that we pray for good communication with South Africa while home on furlough (internet etc.) as well as Godly wisdom for those who received micro-loans for starting a small business. In Canada for good building contracts to raise funds for their return.

Melodie Thompson is back from two weeks in Peru. It was a good time ministering to the children and in English classes.

Denise and Martin in Peru enjoyed having Melodie there – they are now concentrating on finishing the building of their home. Pray for their young ministry to continue to develop.

Zanzibar – pray for Gods solution to the leadership crisis.

Bettina Vasquez –prayers and best wishes as she prepares for her July wedding to Travis. Bettina is a youth worker in Canada.

David and Christina Lewis as they set up a new headmaster for the school, pack and fly to North America in June.

Sri Lanka –tremendous flooding has done much damage –many to families of the work being done by Pastor Abraham Emmanuel. Pray for wisdom and resources to be able to minister to these hurting brothers and sisters.

Nigeria –Bitrus Audu is back in Nigeria following his studies in the US.

One year ago we announced our first worker had been appointed to Libya. Pastor A is there. The building they were using for worship was closed to them –and they have found a second temporary one –but it is too small. Please pray for God to “open doors” and give wisdom and strategy for evngangelism in that land that claims to be 100% Muslim.

HOME ON FURLOUGH this summer –Micheal and Angela Belovicz, Larry and Susan Campbell, David and Christina Lewis, Ken and Nancy Riegert, Gene and Janice Weatherby. For them to share in your church please contact the summer office 705-887-6548. Pray that the time at home has time for rest as well as reports to churches, also study courses which will improve the effectiveness of these workers ministry.

Micheal and Angela Belovicz returning to Dresden Ontario for June and July. Pray for new support churches and individuals.

Campbell's from Ridgetown ON. have been working in Honduras with schooling for M.K.'s and repairs to the mission inn. They are praying about dates to return in the fall for continue this ministry.

From Zanzibar the Lewis family are taking an early furlough at the recommendation of local Christian leaders. Immigration has been concerned about their presence since PEFA cancelled their work permits. Out of respect for the law and after prayer they feel a release from God to take a furlough now. While home they will be available for speaking (from mid July through November) and are also looking at a course offered by Chalmers Centre –Georgia. This will be beneficial for a micro-enterprise ministry which may be part of their future ministry.

The Riegert's are coming for several months and Ken expects to visit many supporting churches while home to share reports on the work.

Gene and Janice Weatherby are in Estevan Sask.. living in a motorhome for several months working in the area to raise further funds for a return to South Africa and the work they have started amongst the AmaXhosa people.
